Beyond the Dot Evaluation Consent

Dear Parent or Guardian,

We are very excited that your student will be joining with other across the state for the Beyond the Dot Summit. As part of the conference the sponsor KASAP will be conducting an evaluation of the program that your child has been invited to attend. Your child is going to be invited to participate in two surveys to determine whether the program is effective. The purpose of the evaluation is to understand whether the conference is effective at building skills to promote non-violent norms and behaviors in their school.

Thank you for your support!

• It is important that you know that your child can attend still the Beyond the Dot Summit participate in the program even if you do not want them to receive the evaluation surveys. Your student will also have the opportunity to let us know if THEY choose not to participate when the surveys are administered.
